Requester submitted a questionnaire on the nature of epilepsy services provided by NHS Orkney.
Response
NHS Orkney does not have a dedicated epilepsy service. Patients are reviewed in GP Practices and referred to specialist services in NHS Grampian for treatment as required. Specific information on the epilepsy services provided could be obtained by submitting a Freedom of Information Request directly to NHS Grampian. Details on how to do this can be found here.
