

RE: Freedom of Information Request 201920/ 210 - Adult ADHD Services

Your Query	Date of Request	August 2019
What plans does NHS Orkney have to restore diagnostic and treatment services for adults with ADHD?
Response
NHS Orkneys diagnostic and treatment service for adults with ADHD is a consultant dependant service. NHS Orkney is due to have a change in our current consultant psychiatrist arrangements therefore at this current time the future of the service is unknown.
